DON'T FRET THE SMALL STUFF

We are in the midst of a wet and wild winter as you have probably noticed, but still we rush home and pack up our gear and drag it up the stairs to the Logan Room for the weekly Jam. It's always worth the effort, even though each night is different. Sometimes we can be part of a cacophony of screaming guitars and get to experience stage deafness, and other times we get to be part of 5 or 6 acoustics playing in intricate harmony, or maybe a jazzy groove that goes on forever. Sometimes we even get to make music with others and it is a real blast.

Bring your guitar and a few copies of a song you'd like to play/sing and we can give it a crack. If you have a friend you play with, bring them too 'cause we like to change our experiences and new ideas can make that happen.

Next week is open mic again with plenty of scope for performance experience if you want it. We promise to give you an appreciative audience.

'Til then, keep noodlin'

Dennis
