Joanne Slagel

Wednesday 18 September 2013

Joanne Slagel is a music teacher and a singer/songwriter, as well as a member of Queen City Big Band (since August 2007), both playing trumpet and singing, once alongside Ray Woolf.

She also sings around Auckland in smaller groups [including a duo with Harlee McIlveen, pictured above with Joanne] and gigging solo, singing originals, covers, and skilfully accompanying herself on guitar.

In the summer of 2010, she started singing her original songs in jazz festivals around the North Island, accompanied by a 3 piece band. She was featured at the Bay Of Islands Jazz and Blues Festival in August and the Whangamata Jazz, Art and Blues Festival in November. She has toured the North and South Islands and recently formed a Jazz vocal/piano Duo Alex Ward.

Don't fret the small stuff. Well, it's been a while since we had a website and we have one again: www.nzguitar.com
Please offer email suggestions for stuff you might like to see on it. Eric has offered to keep it current and we are about to link to our facebook page. For those of you, like Dave and Norris, who always find interesting clips and items of interest to other guitar nerds, please send me the links and we can put them up for the pleasure and education of all. This month we have Auckland singer songwriter Joanne Slagel as a special guest www.joanneslagel.com and we would welcome all your support as we move toward regular guest artists again. GANZ is committed to supporting live music wherever and whenever we can.
Keep noodlin'
Dennis
