Don't Fret the Small stuff. A word from the President

Is there anyone willing and able to accommodate Anthony John and his wife Julia for the night of Wednesday 18 February before they move on to Whangarei?

They play Whangarei FMC Friday Feb 20th. Host Dave Smith has offered to accommodate them 19th and 20th or just the 20th, whatever suits before moving on to Whangateau (21st)

Keep Noodlin'

Dennis

Anthony John Clarke - Singer songwriter - Entertainer extraordinaire

www.anthonyjohnclarke.com

The Belfast Telegraph described him

"A born comic and a keen observer of the idiosyncratic; Brilliantly original. Magnificent".

Folk Group Fairport Convention claimed him as ".... a National Treasure"

Irish musician Colum Sands describes him as "the real drop."

The tributes come thick and fast, and there are plenty

With 11 albums to his credit and a huge following overseas, this seasoned troubadour and wordsmith has graced the world folk scene for 25 years yet still sees himself as an apprentice songwriter.

Clarke last played New Zealand two years ago, where he charmed and mesmerised audiences in clubs, cafés and festivals with his songs, antics, anecdotes and wit.

His songs range from poignant laments that touch the heart and leave a lump in the throat to songs dealing with the lighter side of life, full of mischief and mirth. His songs often bring on laughter and knowing smiles, confirming his eye on our behaviour is never too far off the mark.

Anthony John Clarke is highly entertaining and enormously engaging.

His concerts leave audiences charmed, beguiled and calling for more.

Audiences leave his show with laughter in their hearts and smiles that can't be dampened.

They have a lightness of being.

An acknowledgement that they've seen a truly gifted artist.
